ADAMS Named Finalist for Prestigious Supplier Award in Safety Category

Chicago, IL – Elevator World Magazine has named Adams Elevator a finalist for a 2019 Ellie Award in the Best Supplier – Safety Products category. Voted on by experienced industry professionals and experts, the Ellies recognize North American elevator and escalator businesses that go above and beyond for their customers, employees, communities and the industry as a whole. Voting is open through August 31st.

“It’s always an honor to be recognized by our industry peers, especially in a category as important as safety,” Rick Stumpf, ADAMS General Manager, said. “A key part of our mission since the day the company started in 1930 has been to keep passengers and building professionals safe.”

Popular elevator safety products from ADAMS include the Safe-T-Lock door monitoring system, the LifeJacket® for protection against hydraulic failure; Slim Safety Barriers; Escalator Skirt brushes and the Anti-Personnel Entrapment system.
